

Students at the Vale take on the Aldi challenge to win prizes for their school!

Collect Irish Rugby player stickers with every €30 spent in store

As official supermarket of the IRFU, Aldi's giving primary schools the chance to win €50,000 to develop their playing facilities and help more kids live a healthy and active lifestyle.

Prizes include...

Two Primary Schools will win €50,000 each to develop their playing facilities. A primary school in each province will receive €2,500 worth of training equipment for their school, a training session with Paul O'Connell including a new set of school jerseys and Aldi branded water bottles. Every school who enters a fully completed poster will receive an Aldi Play Rugby kit bag, 4 rugby balls, a water bottle holder and 6 water bottles.

Happy shopping and please don't forget to ask for some rugby stickers at the checkout!

