

Alliterative Tongue twisters

The children in 6th class have been learning all about features of poetry. They worked in small groups to create some tongue twisters which they enjoyed sharing with the class. Here are just some of the examples created by the pupils.