

The children in 6th class have been learning all about weather and climate. They made octoframes to analyse cloud cover. They designed and made an anemometer that can be used to measure wind speed. The children enjoyed problem solving in order to make a sturdy design.